

CORE Back of the House Poster Distribution Guide

You can help CORE help more employees with children in your community by distributing Back of the House posters in your neighborhood. This can also serve as a fun team building activity.

- Print the CORE Back of the House poster: <https://coregives.org/resource-center/>

OR

- Order posters produced on sustainable material from: www.Calagazordering.com
- Distribute posters to food or beverage service operations in your community and let them know about CORE as a resource.

About CORE: Children of Restaurant Employees

CORE, a national non-profit that is dedicated to serving food and beverage employees with children to provide financial relief when either the employee or their child faces a health crisis, injury, death or loss of home or place of work due to a natural disaster.

CORE serves as a resource for any type of foodservice or beverage service operation. Examples: Any type of restaurant, catering service, food truck, cafeteria, bar, coffee shop, smoothie shop, pizza delivery, etc.

Employees can apply for a grant online or be referred through the website application: www.coregives.org Documentation is required, and CORE may cover rent/mortgage, utilities, medical equipment, prescription costs, childcare, funds for basic necessities, and more.

Ask operators to please post the CORE Back of the House poster on their employee bulletin board. We also have a Family Information Center at www.coregives.org with a listing of additional resources that may be helpful for employees.
