

CORE Mission Statement & Boilerplate

Mission Statement:

To provide financial relief to food and beverage operations employees with children when navigating a life-altering health crisis, death or natural disaster.

Extended Boilerplate:

About CORE:

CORE is a national 501(c)3 dedicated to providing financial relief to food and beverage service employees with children when the employee, child, or spouse/domestic partner faces a life-altering medical crisis, injury, death, or natural disaster. Industry organizations and individual donors provide financial funding to help these families. Since 2004, the organization has grown into a nationally recognized nonprofit that has helped more than 2,500 families in 50 states, D.C., and Puerto Rico. CORE provides help in the form of a financial grant to help cover rent/mortgage, utilities, medical supplies, and funds for necessities. Each grant is unique and based on the specific needs of each applicant, and employees who qualify for a grant can apply online.

To learn more, apply for a grant, or donate please visit coregives.org

Abbreviated Boilerplate:

About CORE:

CORE is a national 501(c)3 dedicated to providing financial relief to food and beverage service employees with children when the employee, child, or spouse/domestic partner faces a life-altering medical crisis, injury, death, or natural disaster. CORE has helped families in all 50 states, D.C., and Puerto Rico.

To learn more, apply for a grant, or donate please visit coregives.org

If you have any questions, please contact CORE at info@COREgives.org

